Attorneys for Plaintiff

JOSE GRACIANO, Individually, and
on Behalf of the Class

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JOSE GRACIANO, Individually, and
on Behalf of the Class,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED FIDELITY LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY, a Texas
Corporation,

Defendant.

Case No.:

INDIVIDUAL AND CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR:

(1) DECLARATORY JUDGMENT OR RELIEF (CAL. CIV. CODE § 1060, ET SEQ.);

(2) BREACH OF CONTRACT; and

(3) UNFAIR COMPETITION (CAL.
BUS. & PROF. CODE § 17200, ET SEQ.)

AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

1 Plaintiff JOSE GRACIANO, Individually, and on Behalf of the Class, and as 2 defined below, makes the following allegations against Defendant UNITED 3 FIDELITY LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, a Texas Corporation (“UFLIC” or 4 “Defendant”) as follows:

5 I. NATURE OF THE CASE

6 1. Since January of 2013, UFLIC has wrongfully terminated hundreds of 7 life insurance policies in violation of California law. The unlawful activity continues 8 to this day. Plaintiff and the Class of Defendant’s policy holders and vested 9 beneficiaries are victims of UFLIC’s ongoing unlawful practices.

10 2. Since January 1, 2013, every life insurer doing business in California, 11 before it can lawfully lapse or terminate a life insurance policy for nonpayment of 12 premium, must strictly comply with the notice and grace period provisions found in 13 California Insurance Code Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72 (“the Statutes”), as well 14 as existing in California common law. There are no exceptions. The legal 15 requirements of the Statutes are simple.

16 3. First, every life insurance policy must “contain” and actually grant a 17 60-day grace period. This means a 60-day grace period must be actually written and 18 contained in the terms of the contract of insurance provided to the policy owner.
19 During this time, premiums received must be accepted without condition and the 20 policy owner and the insurer may not declare the policy lapsed or terminated. Should 21 the insured die during the grace period, the insurer must pay the policy benefits.

22 4. Second, the Statutes mandate that no policy may lapse or be terminated 23 until and unless, after a payment is due and is unpaid, the insurer mails a 30-day 24 warning notice, not only to the policy owner, but also to any assignee, any person 25 with interest in the policy, and a designee selected by the policy owner to receive 26 such notice. The notice may only be mailed after the initial premium is due and is 27 unpaid and must be an accurate description of the status of the policy.

28 5. Next, every “applicant” for life insurance must be notified of its right to 1 designate an individual to receive the 30-day notices provided by the Statutes prior 2 to the issuance and delivery of the policy. This notice must then be provided 3 annually to the policy owner. An “applicant” for life insurance means any form of 4 applicant, including “applicants” for reinstatement, conversion, or any modification 5 or change or in the contract.

6 6. Finally, under the terms of the Statutes, no insurer may lapse or 7 terminate a life insurance policy for nonpayment without first strictly complying 8 with all these provisions. Failure to comply with all these notice provisions voids 9 any attempted termination or lapse as a matter of law until and unless there has been 10 compliance. None of these requirements are satisfied by substantial performance, 11 nor are they excused by the conduct of the policy owner or the alleged subjective 12 intent of the policy owner. These are mandates and, absent compliance with each 13 and every provision, no lawful termination of a life insurance policy occurs until and 14 unless the provisions are fully and strictly satisfied.

15 7. Since January 1, 2013, UFLIC has systematically and purposely failed 16 to provide full 60-day grace periods, proper notices of pending lapse or termination, 17 or inform applicants and policy owners of their right to designate a third party to 18 receive notices of lapse. Further, in evaluating terminations arising from 19 nonpayment of premium after January 1, 2013, UFLIC has failed to apply these 20 rules and undertook no evaluation of its own compliance. This specific failure to 21 comply is universal and implicates policies issued before the date of the Statutes’ 22 enactment (January 1, 2013).

23 8. UFLIC has also intentionally concealed from its policy owners and 24 beneficiaries and other persons and entities with interest in its life insurance 25 products, the existence of these mandatory rules and procedures and the rights they 26 guarantee – rights about which UFLIC would rather its customers and claimants not 27 know. This concealment, scheme, and plan by UFLIC is intentional, as is UFLIC’s 28 complete disregard for the statutory mandates of California.

1           9. Moreover, since January 1, 2013, UFLIC has become aware of its 2 failures and has failed to take the appropriate corrective action. Instead, UFLIC 3 appears to have doubled down and made the decision to ignore the law, ignore court 4 rulings, and deal with the occasional complaint without regard to its obligation to 5 apply these rules properly and completely to all of its varied life insurance products 6 utilized in this state.

7           10. UFLIC's continued disregard for the law is widespread. Indeed, 8 hundreds of policy owners have lost and continue to lose the benefit, value, and 9 security of their life insurance; have been and continue to be forced into unnecessary 10 reinstatements; and in many instances have lost all reasonable access to any 11 insurance at all. Ultimately, UFLIC has robbed hundreds of its beneficiaries, like 12 Plaintiff, of policy benefits and hundreds of insureds of the ability to have life 13 insurance protection.

14           11. The injury to UFLIC's customers and vested beneficiaries continues 15 today, with policy owners currently paying unnecessary or inflated premiums or 16 unknowingly suffering from improper, forced "reinstatements" which diminish the 17 value of the policies. UFLIC has told numerous policy owners that they have no 18 insurance, although their policies, unbeknownst to the policy owners, are still in 19 force. All share the same harm and injury – an unlawfully terminated policy. Today 20 these people, their heirs, beneficiaries, and others with interest likely believe that the 21 defaulting party to these policies is the policy owner, when, in fact, the only party in 22 default and the only party which disavowed and repudiated the policy was UFLIC.
23 Beneficiaries who do make claims are having these claims denied on the false 24 assertion that the policy was terminated when, in fact, benefits are owed. Most actual 25 vested beneficiaries do not even know that they have rights under a policy illegally 26 terminated, which still requires payment of the benefits.

27           12. The mandates of California law and the California Insurance Code were 28 established to protect all Californians and others, primarily seniors and the ill, and 1 apply regardless of the date of the policy's issuance. McHugh v. Protective Life Ins.

2 Co. 12 Cal.5th 213 (2021).<sup>1</sup>

3 13. UFLIC's conduct and failure to comply with the Statutes is intended to 4 take advantage of the people for whose benefit the Statutes were passed. UFLIC 5 intentionally increased the likelihood of forfeitures, which allowed UFLIC to gain 6 financially at the expense of its customers.

7 14. Plaintiff is a victim of UFLIC's past and continual failure to appreciate 8 the importance and mandates of the Statutes and to disclose those mandates to its 9 policy owners. In or around August 2022, UFLIC wrongfully terminated Plaintiff's 10 late-mother's policy (of which he is a beneficiary) without providing all of the 11 Statutes' protections.

12 15. In sum, Plaintiff suffered the common single harm suffered by all of the 13 Class members – the wrongful and continued repudiation of valuable life insurance 14 policies or denial of death benefits as vested beneficiaries. Plaintiff's experience is 15 not unique and is suffered by the Class as a whole.

16 16. Plaintiff brings this action to recover for the injuries and damages 17 and/or for the Court to fashion appropriate remedies necessary and resulting from 18 these violations, not only for his benefit, but also on behalf of the numerous 19 California policy owners and beneficiaries who have also been denied and continue 20 to be denied the benefits of California law. Plaintiff also requests injunctive relief 21 intended to ensure UFLIC's future compliance with these important consumer 22 safeguards and to prevent ongoing violations of these important Statutes.

23 24 <sup>1</sup> Recently, the Ninth Circuit upheld a decision by a district court concluding that 25 failure to strictly comply with the provisions of Insurance Code Sections 10113.71 26 and 10113.72 does not legally terminate a life insurance policy purportedly in 27 default, and that, if a death of an insured occurs, policy benefits are owed. Thomas v.
28 State Farm Life Ins. Co., No. 20-55231, 2021 U.S. App. LEXIS 30035 (9th Cir. Oct.
6, 2021); see also, Bentley v. United of Omaha Life Ins. Co., No. 2:15-cv-07870-means a policy cannot lapse).

II. PARTIES

17. Plaintiff JOSE GRACIANO, Individually, and on Behalf of the Class, is the beneficiary of the subject policy. Plaintiff is and has been a resident and citizen of Riverside County, California, at all times relevant. Plaintiff pursues these claims and causes of action individually, on his own behalf as the beneficiary of the subject policy, and on behalf of the Class.

18. Defendant United Fidelity Life Insurance Company is a Texas corporation engaged in business involving the sale and administration of life insurance throughout the United States and other territories. UFLIC is licensed to conduct business and does business throughout California. UFLIC is a licensed/chartered life insurance carrier in California and is subject to regulation by California authorities.

III. JURISDICTION

19. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1332, including the Class Action Fairness Act. The matter in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds the sum or value of $75,000 and is between citizens of different states. Also, the matter or controversy is a putative class action with over 100 class members and with over $5 million in controversy.

20. Venue is proper in the Central District of California pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1391(b) through (d) because Defendant is authorized to conduct business in this district and has intentionally availed itself of the laws and markets within this District; does substantial business in this district and is subject to personal jurisdiction in this district. Plaintiff also resides in this district and has resided in this district at all times relevant.

21. Plaintiff is informed and believes that all injuries and damages arose primarily in the state of California and all related conduct of the Defendant occurred solely within the state of California.

22. UFLIC is authorized to conduct business in this state and has

1 intentionally availed itself of the laws and markets within this state and does 2 substantial business in this state. The business and activities which are the subject of 3 this litigation are being conducted throughout the state in each and every county on a 4 uniform and consistent basis. Plaintiff is informed and believes that UFLIC treats all 5 policy owners, beneficiaries, agents, producers, or others living or located in 6 California as being regulated and governed by the same uniform statewide policies 7 and procedures. UFLIC's business within this state is substantial and consists of the 8 marketing, sale, delivery, maintenance, and administration of thousands of life 9 insurance policies, representing billions of dollars in benefits, as well as the 10 maintenance of dozens of sales and agent offices.

11 23. UFLIC advertises throughout California, including throughout this 12 county, and conducts significant sales and related business activities in California 13 and in this county, in general, as well as specifically regarding the marketing, sale, 14 and administration of life insurance policies.

15 24. Plaintiff is informed and believes that UFLIC, consistent with industry 16 standards for insurance companies doing business in numerous jurisdictions, utilizes 17 the addresses of policy owners as a determining factor of what law to apply to the 18 administration of the policy. As such, UFLIC treats policy owners residing in 19 California as requiring application of California law and UFLIC, furthermore, 20 acknowledges its capacity to be sued in California counties in which it conducts 21 business. UFLIC has developed and continues to develop and apply not only 22 marketing strategies, but administration strategies, specifically, in relation to actual 23 or potential policy owners residing in California. UFLIC's wrongful conduct has 24 occurred in this county and throughout the state of California. Since 2013, the 25 wrongful conduct alleged throughout this Complaint has occurred within California.

26 IV. THE ENACTMENT AND APPLICABILITY OF 27 INSURANCE CODE SECTIONS 10113.71 AND 10113.72

28 25. In 2012, after extensive and open hearings and public consideration,

1 including with Defendant, all other major insurance companies doing business in 2 California, the California Legislature enacted Insurance Code Sections 10113.71 and 3 10113.72 (hereinafter the “Statutes”), which instituted procedural requirements for 4 the termination and lapse of life insurance policies. The Statutes were written to 5 avoid unintended forfeiture of life insurance policies primarily being suffered by the 6 elderly and the ill. The Legislature found there was a significant problem in 7 California with the elderly abruptly losing insurance because they happened to miss 8 a premium payment, despite having faithfully and timely paid for many years. But 9 the Statutes were nonetheless also designed to apply to all forms of life insurance.

10 26. Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72, in addition to other statutory 11 provisions and laws in effect as of January 1, 2013, mandate that every life insurance 12 policy in or governed by California law, including policies that have issued, been 13 delivered, renewed, reinstated, converted or otherwise become subject to the 14 jurisdiction of California, shall contain a 60-day grace period and that the policy 15 shall remain in force during the grace period. Cal. Ins. Code § 10113.71(a).

16 27. The provisions further require that, before any life insurance policy 17 governed by California law is lapsed or terminated for nonpayment of premium, a 18 30-day written notice of pending lapse or termination must be mailed, not only to the 19 policy owner, but also to any additional person who has been designated to receive 20 such notice, as well as to any person having any interest in the policy. Cal. Ins. Code 21 § 10113.71(b)(1) and see § 10113.72(c) (dealing with designee notification).

22 28. The provisions also mandate that the insurer, on an annual basis, as well 23 as during any application process, notify the policy owner of an “individual policy” 24 of his or her right to designate additional notice recipients. This again is an 25 obligation owed on any policy within the jurisdiction of California.

26 29. Finally, the Statutes mandate that no lapse or termination is effective 27 unless every one of the applicable provisions is strictly complied with. The Statutes 28 codified existing California law on strict compliance with forfeiture provisions.

1           30. The provisions are applicable individually and severally to all life 2 insurance policies governed by California law.

3           31. More specifically, Section 10113.71 originally reads as follows:

4           § 10113.71 Grace Period; Notice of pending lapse and 5           termination of policy; Mailing requirement

6           (a) Each life insurance policy issued or delivered in this 7 state shall contain a provision for a grace period of not 8 less than 60 days from the premium due date. The 60-day 9 grace period shall not run 10 concurrently with the period of paid coverage. The 11 provision shall provide that the policy shall remain in 12 force during the grace period.

13           (b) (1) A notice of pending lapse and termination of a life 14 insurance policy shall not be effective unless mailed by 15 the insurer to the named policy owner, a designee named 16 pursuant to Section 10113.72 for an individual life 17 insurance policy, and a known assignee or other person 18 having an interest in the individual life insurance policy, 19 at least 30 days prior to the effective date of termination if 20 termination is for nonpayment of premium.

21           (2) This subdivision shall not apply to nonrenewal.

22           (3) Notice shall be given to the policy owner and to the 23 designee by first-class United States mail within 30 days 24 after a premium is due and unpaid. However, notices 25 made to assignees pursuant to this section may be done 26 electronically with the consent of the assignee.

27           (c) For purposes of this section, a life insurance policy 28 includes, but is not limited to, an individual life insurance policy and a group life insurance policy, except where otherwise provided.

Next, Section 10113.72 states:

21           § 10113.72 Right to designate person to receive notice 22           of lapse or termination of policy for nonpayment of 23           premium; Right to change designation; Notice of lapse 24           or termination

25           (a) An individual life insurance policy shall not be issued 26 or delivered in this state until the applicant has been given 27 the right to designate at least one person, in addition to the 28 applicant, to receive notice of lapse or termination of a policy for nonpayment of premium. The insurer shall provide each applicant with a form to make the designation. That form shall provide the opportunity for the applicant to submit the name, address, and telephone

1 number of at least one person, in 2 addition to the applicant, who is to receive notice of lapse or termination of the policy for nonpayment of premium.

3 (b) The insurer shall notify the policy owner annually of 4 the right to change the written designation or designate one or more persons. The policy owner may change the 5 designation more often if he or she chooses to do so.

6 (c) No individual life insurance policy shall lapse or be 7 terminated for nonpayment of premium unless the insurer, at least 30 days prior to the effective date of the lapse or 8 termination, gives notice to the policy owner and to the person or persons designated pursuant to subdivision (a), 9 at the address provided by the policy owner for purposes of receiving notice of lapse or termination. Notice shall be 10 given by first-class United States mail within 30 days after a premium is due and unpaid.

11 32. These provisions were intended to standardize the procedures and 12 notices used by life insurers to terminate policies. The Statutes further codified 13 longstanding California law and policy regarding the state's desire to protect policy 14 owners and beneficiaries from loss of insurance resulting from the failure, e.g., to 15 pay a single premium after years of timely payments.

16 V. UFLIC'S VIOLATIONS OF LAW

17 33. In 2012, Defendant was made fully aware of the drafting and enactment 18 of these provisions. And through its own lobbying groups and regulatory advisors, 19 Defendant understood how and in what fashion the Statutes would apply. Prior to 20 enactment, Defendant made no attempt to object to the enactment of the Statutes, 21 which are the subject of this litigation.

22 34. Despite early knowledge of the Statutes and their mandates, since 23 January 1, 2013, Defendant has failed to fully comply with the Statutes. UFLIC has 24 treated policies differently based on their date of issuance and the type of the policy.

25 35. Specifically, UFLIC has not strictly complied with the Statutes 26 regarding individual policies issued or delivered in the state of California prior to 27 January 1, 2013.

28 36. UFLIC has failed to provide full 60-day grace periods contained in the 1 policy by either not actually attaching or making the grace period a physical part of 2 the policy, improperly advising policy owners and/or claimants of the wrong grace 3 period, not accepting premiums without conditions during the grace period or 4 inaccurately declaring a policy terminated prior to the expiration of the grace period, 5 which amounts to a repudiation of the policy.

6 37. UFLIC has failed to mail accurate timely 30-day pending lapse notices 7 to the policy owner and/or designee either by inaccurately describing the actual 8 grace period, by failing to mail to those recipients the notices required by law and/or 9 by providing insufficient time periods as required by law.

10 38. UFLIC has failed to provide annual notifications to policy owners, 11 entitled to such notices, of their rights to designate.

12 39. UFLIC has failed apply the mandates of the Statutes as an absolute 13 condition for termination of any policy for nonpayment of premium and instead 14 excusing noncompliance based on the inaccurate perceived fault of the policy owner 15 or other irrelevant grounds or justification.

16 40. UFLIC has treated policy owners directly and indirectly as if they are in 17 default for payment of premiums, when, in fact, in every instance UFLIC first 18 violated the terms of the policy and/or Statutes prior to any actual default by any 19 policy owner.

20 41. UFLIC has imposed new conditions on terminated policies including 21 the demand for repayment of unearned premiums, as well as ignoring the 22 consequences of noncompliance with the Statutes.

23 42. UFLIC has been aware, since 2013, that all of its policies administered 24 in the state of California and in force after January 1, 2013, were to be administered 25 consistent with these provisions. However, UFLIC has acted in contravention and 26 violation of various Insurance Code provisions, other than the Statutes, including 27 regulatory mandates and the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing implied 28 in every insurance contract in California.

43. In August of 2021, UFLIC learned that the California Supreme Court had confirmed that the Statutes applied to all in-force life insurance policies in the state as of or after January 1, 2013, including Plaintiff's late-mother's policy, but has yet to acknowledge this fact and still refused to comply with the law after August 2021.

44. Finally, Plaintiff is informed and believes UFLIC has failed to institute appropriate training and education of sales and underwriting staff, as well as claims personnel and others, whose knowledge of these rules is essential for UFLIC's operation. Plaintiff is informed and believes that additional violations of the Statutes have also occurred, which will be disclosed during this litigation.

VI. MS. GRACIANO’S POLICY, TERMINATION, AND DENIAL OF CLAIM

45. Plaintiff's experience with UFLIC is representative of UFLIC's ongoing course of misconduct and noncompliance.

46. In or around August 1983, Plaintiff's late mother, Rosa Graciano ("Ms. Graciano"), purchased, from or in California, a universal life insurance policy (the "Policy" or "Subject Policy") from UFLIC. The policy number on the subject Policy is 05DL116565. As of the date of filing, Plaintiff does not have a full copy of his late-mother's Policy contract. UFLIC maintains custody, possession, and control of the entire Policy file, which will be produced by UFLIC in this litigation.

47. The Policy was purchased in California, was issued and delivered in California, and premiums were all paid from California, such that it was and continues to be governed by the laws of the state of California, including, but not limited to, the Statutes. The value of the Policy is $35,000 or more and names Plaintiff as beneficiary.

48. Plaintiff's late mother, Ms. Graciano, stayed current on the Policy and faithfully paid monthly premiums for nearly 40 years, and well beyond enactment of the Statutes by the California Legislature in 2013. Ms. Graciano did not miss a

1 payment until her dementia stopped her from living a functional life in or around 2 August of 2022. Sadly, Ms. Graciano passed away in or around February 2023.
3 When Plaintiff made a claim on the Policy, as the beneficiary, UFLIC denied 4 Plaintiff's claim to a death benefit, stating that the Policy purportedly lapsed or 5 terminated in or around August of 2022 for nonpayment of premium.

6 49. Based on information and belief, as of the date of the purported lapse or 7 termination of the Policy, UFLIC had violated every single provision of the Statutes.

8 50. Initially, prior to discovery and investigation, it appears UFLIC violated 9 at the least Cal. Ins. Code Section 10113.72(b) by not annually notifying Ms.
10 Graciano of a right to designate.

11 51. UFLIC also terminated the Policy without compliance with the 12 provisions of Cal. Ins. Code Section 10113.71(a), which mandated a 60-day grace 13 period.

14 52. UFLIC also failed to provide notices, as required by Cal. Ins. Code 15 Sections 10113.71(b)(1) and (3).

16 53. No notice was sent to the policy owner and no notice was sent to the 17 designee, due to UFLIC's failure to provide the right to designate, during the years 18 the Policy was in force after 2013. See Cal. Ins. Code Section 10113.72(b).

19 54. UFLIC then proceeded to violate Insurance Code Sections 10113.71 20 and 10113.72, when it claimed the Policy had lapsed or terminated. In fact, however, 21 under the provisions of Sections 10113.71(b)(1) and 10113.72(b), no legal 22 termination had occurred. UFLIC never complied with the strict compliance aspects 23 of the Statutes in any respect.

24 55. As of August 2021, Defendant compounded its violations of the 25 Statutes by failing to comply with the Statutes and their ongoing duty of good faith 26 and fair dealing not only as to the subject Policy but to other Class policy owners 27 and vested beneficiaries.

28 56. UFLIC's violations occurred prior to the Policy even reaching the end

1 of the statutory and contractual grace period. Ms. Graciano had done nothing 2 contrary to the terms of the Policy, but was being dealt with as the party in default.
3 But for her dementia causing her to lose functionality, Ms. Graciano had every 4 intention of maintaining the Policy, as evidenced by the fact of her actively making 5 premium payments for nearly 40 years.

6 57. Plaintiff is further informed and believes that, irrespective of the 7 application of the provisions of Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72, UFLIC 8 systematically failed to comply with the express terms of Policy, which promised a 9 default notice prior to terminating the Policy at the end of the grace period.

10 58. Each of Defendant's violations was a material violation of law and a 11 material breach and repudiation of the Policy, thereby excusing any further 12 performance by Ms. Graciano of tendering premiums to maintain the Policy in force 13 or imposing any requirements or conditions. UFLIC was in contractual breach and 14 remained in breach of the Policy at all times from at least January 1, 2013, until the 15 date of this filing. As a result of each and every violation, there was harm and injury 16 to Plaintiff.

17 VII. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

18 59. Plaintiff is informed and believes that Defendant has not, since at least 19 January 1, 2013, properly and fully complied with the provisions of California 20 Insurance Code Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72. Since that time, Defendant has 21 failed and continues to fail to provide these protections to policy owners and 22 beneficiaries.

23 60. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of all members of the proposed 24 Class, as follows:

25 The Class:

26 All owners, or beneficiaries upon a death of the insured, of 27 Defendant's life insurance policies that were renewed, issued, 28 or delivered by Defendant in California, and in force on January

1 1, 2013, and which underwent or will undergo lapse or 2 termination for the nonpayment of premium without Defendant 3 first providing every notice, grace period, and offer of 4 designation required by Insurance Code Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72.

5 61. Numerosity. The members of the Class are so numerous that their 6 individual joinder is impracticable. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and on that 7 basis alleges, that the proposed Class contains hundreds and perhaps thousands of 8 members. The true number of members is known or ascertainable by the Defendant, 9 as are their identities. Thus, Class members may likely be notified of the pendency 10 of this action by first class mail, electronic mail, and/or by published notice.

11 62. Existence and Predominance of Common Questions and Answers of 12 Law and Fact. There is a well-defined community of interest in the questions and 13 answers of law and fact involved affecting Class members. The questions and 14 answers of law and fact common to the Class predominate over questions and 15 answers affecting only individual Class members, including, but not limited to, the 16 following:

- 17 a. Has Defendant violated and continued to violate the provisions of 18 Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72?;
- 19 b. Is Defendant continuing to refuse to provide the protections 20 afforded by the provisions of Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72?;
- 21 c. Have Defendant's life insurance policies been ineffectively 22 lapsed, terminated, or subsequently unnecessarily modified 23 through reinstatement?;
- 24 d. Should the Court invalidate improper lapses, terminations, and/or 25 reinstatements of policies that resulted from Defendant's failure 26 to comply with the Insurance Code?; and 27
28

1 e. Should Defendant be required to make payments to beneficiaries 2 of policies where the insured has died, and the policy was lapsed 3 or terminated in violation of Sections 10113.71 or 10113.72?

4 63. Typicality. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the members of 5 the Class and because Plaintiff and each member of the Class were victims of the 6 same statutory violations. Further, Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of his 7 fellow Class members, which all arise from the same operative facts involving 8 Defendant's unlawful violations of Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72.

9 64. Adequacy of Representation. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect 10 the interests of the Class. Plaintiff has retained counsel highly experienced in 11 handling class action litigation, including that which involves consumer protection 12 from unfair insurance business practices, and Plaintiff intends to prosecute this 13 action vigorously. Plaintiff has no interest adverse or antagonistic to that of the 14 Class.

15 65. Superiority. A class action is a superior method for the fair and efficient 16 adjudication of this controversy. The damages or other financial detriment suffered 17 by individual Class members are relatively small compared to the burden and 18 expense that would be expended by individual litigation of their claims against 19 Defendant. It would thus be virtually impossible for Class members, on an 20 individual basis, to obtain effective redress for the wrongs done to them.
21 Furthermore, even if Class members could afford such individualized litigation, the 22 court system could not. Individualized litigation would create the danger of 23 inconsistent or contradictory judgments arising from the same set of facts.
24 Individualized litigation would also increase the delay and expense to all parties and 25 the court system from the issues raised by this action. The class action device 26 provides the benefit of adjudication of these issues in a single proceeding, 27 economies of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single court, and presents 28 no unusual management difficulties under the circumstances. Moreover, many Class

1 members remain unaware of their rights and, without this Class action, would 2 remain unaware of their rights and benefits.

3 66. In the alternative, the Class may also be certified because:

- 4 a. The prosecution of separate actions by individual Class members 5 would create a risk of inconsistent or varying adjudication with 6 respect to individual Class members that would establish 7 incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant;
- 8 b. The prosecution of separate actions by individual Class members 9 would create a risk of adjudications with respect to them that 10 would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of 11 other Class members not parties to the adjudications, or would 12 substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their 13 interests; and/or
- 14 c. Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally 15 applicable to the Class, thereby making appropriate final 16 declaratory and/or injunctive relief with respect to the members 17 of the Class as a whole.

18 67. Unless the Class is certified, Defendant will retain monies received 19 because of its conduct taken against the Class members and Plaintiff. Unless a 20 classwide injunction is issued, Defendant will continue to commit the violations 21 alleged and members of the Class will continue to be harmed.

22 68. Plaintiff knows of no difficulty likely to be encountered in the 23 management of this litigation that would preclude its maintenance as a class action.
24 Because the action is brought as a class action, the Court need only apply a single set 25 of California laws as they relate to Defendant's violation of Sections 10113.71 and 26 10113.72.

27 69. Plaintiff has incurred, and will incur, expenses for attorney's fees and 28 costs in bringing this action. These attorney's fees and costs are necessary for the 1 prosecution of this action and will result in a benefit to each of the members of the 2 Class.

3 VIII. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
4 FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT OR RELIEF (CAL CIV. CODE § 1060, 5 ET SEQ.*)
6 (By Plaintiff, Individually, and on Behalf of the Class)

7 70. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained 8 above.

9 71. Plaintiff, in his individual capacity, as well as in his representative 10 capacity, brings this action individually and on behalf of all members of the Class.

11 72. Under California law, “[a]ny person interested under a written 12 instrument... or under a contract, or who desires a declaration of his or her rights or 13 duties with respect to another... may, in cases of an actual controversy relating to 14 the legal rights and duties of the respective parties,” maintain a complaint or cross-15 complaint “for a declaration of his or her rights and duties.” Furthermore, he or she 16 “may ask for a declaration of rights or duties, either alone, or with other relief, and 17 the court may make a binding declaration of these rights or duties, whether or not 18 further relief is or could be claimed at the time.” Cal. Civ. Code § 1060.

19 A. Basis for Relief

20 73. On January 1, 2013, the California Insurance Code was amended by 21 Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72. The provisions of these Statutes were immediately 22 and thereafter read into all in-force policies, regardless of the date of issuance. The 23 provisions were further intended to require compliance by all life insurance policies 24 – including, but not limited to, both group and individual – that came within the 25 jurisdiction of California, including, but not limited to, policies that renewed or 26 somehow continued in force on or after January 1, 2013.

27 74. These Statutes and amendments to the California Insurance Code were 28 intended to and do regulate the lapse and termination procedures arising from 1 nonpayment of premiums which may occur from the date of enactment and 2 thereafter.

3 75. The amendments were not intended to relieve or waive a policy owner's 4 continuing obligation to pay premiums but operated to keep the policy in force until 5 the policy was properly lapsed or terminated consistent with the statutory provisions 6 which were incorporated into the terms of the policy by law. Each of these statutory 7 requirements was intended to stand alone.

8 76. Forfeiture provisions for nonpayment of premium for life insurance 9 policies are strictly construed against lapse or termination and California law 10 disfavors forfeiture of insurance. Forfeitures "are often the means of great 11 oppression and injustice" and "the courts should be liberal in construing the 12 transaction in favor of avoiding a forfeiture." Ins. Co. v. Norton, 96 U.S. 234, 242 13 (1978). "Forfeiture of a policy will be avoided on any reasonable showing." Klotz v.
14 Old Line Life Ins. Co. of Amer., 955 F.Supp. 1183, 1188 (N.D. Cal. 1996).

15 B. There is an Actual Controversy Requiring a Declaration of Rights
16 and Duties

17 77. An actual controversy has arisen and now exists between Plaintiff and 18 Defendant concerning their respective rights and duties under the California 19 Insurance Code and the Policy. Plaintiff contends that Sections 10113.71 and 20 10113.72 apply to the subject Policy, as well as to all of Defendant's individual and 21 group California life insurance policies in force as of or after January 1, 2013, 22 including any policies that were renewed in California on or after January 1, 2013.
23 Plaintiff also contends that these Statutes govern the manner and procedure in which 24 life insurance policies can legally be lapsed or terminated as of January 1, 2013, and 25 thereafter. Defendant contends that policies terminated without the protection of 26 California Insurance Code Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72 nevertheless remained 27 terminated and that policy owners are not entitled to the revival of their policies and 28 that vested beneficiaries are not entitled to any death benefits.

1           78. Plaintiff contends that the violations of the Statutes, as described herein, 2 all invalidate and void any attempts to terminate the subject policies and/or act as a 3 repudiation of those policies.

4           79. Plaintiff desires a judicial determination of rights and duties and a 5 declaration or judgment that Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72 must be strictly 6 complied with in order to terminate a policy for nonpayment of premium.

7           80. Plaintiff desires a judicial determination that Defendant's life insurance 8 policies in California must contain a 60-day grace period in the written contract.

9           81. Plaintiff desires a judicial determination that Defendant's failure to 10 annually provide notice of a right to designate a third party to receive notices of 11 pending lapse under Section 10113.72 renders a policy termination ineffective, 12 leaving the policy in force.

13           82. Plaintiff desires a judicial determination that Defendant is not entitled 14 to premium payments for periods of time where Defendant declared a policy 15 terminated in violation of Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72.

16           83. Plaintiff desires a judicial determination that the Subject Policy and 17 Class policies were not properly terminated in conformance with Sections 10113.71 18 and 10113.72.

19           84. A judicial declaration would advise insureds and their beneficiaries of 20 their rights and would advise Defendant of its duties to Plaintiff and to Class 21 members concerning policy owners' rights to designate individuals to receive notices 22 of pending lapse and termination and the right to receive notice of, and the ability to 23 properly utilize, the legally required grace period. A judicial declaration is also 24 necessary to determine the validity of any unnecessary reinstatements obtained, to 25 determine whether policies were legally in force at the times of deaths of insureds, 26 and to determine whether beneficiaries were wrongfully denied payment of benefits 27 under their policies.

IX. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
BREACH OF CONTRACT
(By Plaintiff, Individually, and on Behalf of the Class)

85. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained above.

86. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and also on behalf of all members of the Class, as necessary.

87. Defendant breached and continues to breach the express terms of its life insurance policies, including Plaintiff's late-mother's Policy, as well as the statutory mandates regarding such policies, by, amongst other things:

- a. Failing to include in such policies and/or failing to provide a 60-day grace period for purposes of payment of premiums and lapse and termination of coverage for nonpayment of premium;
- b. Lapsing and/or terminating policies before expiration of the 60-day grace period;
- c. Failing to include in such policies and failing to provide accurate 30-day written notice of pending lapse or termination;
- d. Failing, where applicable, to provide proper notice to policy owners on an annual basis of the policy owners' right to designate individuals to receive notices of pending lapse or termination;
- e. Lapsing or terminating policies without strictly complying with the terms of the policies;
- f. Refusing to pay benefits to beneficiaries, despite knowledge and information that Defendant had not strictly complied with the terms of the policies;
- g. Improperly requiring reinstatement of policies that had not lapsed or terminated and which were not required or were not subject to reinstatement;

- h. Failing to pay benefits or claims;
- i. Failing to provide the notices required by the policy; and
- j. Failing to apply the applicable law to the insurance contract by repudiating policies of insurance for nonpayment without strict compliance with the provisions of the Statutes.

88. Under the terms of the subject Policy and Class policies and consistent with laws of California, Defendant was required to mail the required notices, effectuate the change of the policies to include the proper grace period, and was required to notify policy owners of their right to designate every year as well as during any application. Plaintiff's late mother was entitled to be mailed written notice prior to the effectuation of any lapse or termination for nonpayment. Defendant sent no such notice and, thus, breached the insurance contract by failing to provide that notice.

89. All of the aforementioned conduct, individually and collectively, constitutes material unexcused breaches of the Policy, as well as express material repudiations of the contract. To the extent any contractual obligations, duties, or conditions are imposed on policy owners or on beneficiaries, those obligations, duties, and conditions have been waived and/or have been excused due to Defendant's material breaches.

90. Defendant's conduct caused injury upon the false, wrongful, and inadequate termination of coverage, and ultimately in refusing to pay the claim. Plaintiff and his fellow Class members suffered harm through the loss of coverage, the loss of peace of mind related to the existence of coverage, the capacity to utilize the years of investment in wrongfully-lapsed and terminated policies, and through the denial of claims.

91. To the extent any policy owners and/or beneficiaries have failed to comply with any payment conditions or other conditions for the continuation of insurance, Defendant is estopped from asserting such conditions due to its conduct

1 and material breaches.

2 92. As a legal and proximate result of the conduct described herein, the 3 Class has suffered direct and foreseeable economic damages, including loss of 4 policy benefits and/or the values of the policies and allowed interest under the terms 5 of the policies and the law, in a nature and amount to be proven at the time of trial.

6 X. THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
7 UNFAIR COMPETITION (BUS. AND PROF. CODE § 17200, ET SEQ.)
8 (By Plaintiff, Individually, and on Behalf of the Class)

9 93. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained 10 above.

11 94. Plaintiff brings this claim individually and also on behalf of all 12 members of the Class, as necessary.

13 95. California Business and Professions Code Sections 17200, et seq., 14 (“UCL”) prohibit any unlawful, unfair, deceptive, or fraudulent business practice.

15 96. Defendant committed “unlawful” acts under the UCL by violating and 16 continuing to violate Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72, including by failing to afford 17 policy owners, including Plaintiff’s late mother, the requisite 60-day grace period 18 and/or written 30-day notice prior to any lapse or termination, and further, an annual 19 right to designate someone else to also receive notices of pending lapse or 20 termination of coverage.

21 97. The subject Policy and the Class policies remain in force and benefits 22 are payable upon the deaths of the insureds. Because of UFLIC’s violations of the 23 California Insurance Code, UFLIC’s attempted terminations or lapses of policies 24 were illegal and ineffective. The Class policies, in other words, remain in force and 25 subject to payment of benefits. UFLIC’s failure to comply with the statutory terms 26 has not effectively terminated any policy and Class members all remain in ongoing 27 valid contractual relationships with UFLIC.

28 98. UFLIC’s unlawful practices also included and continue to include Defendant’s ongoing concealment of the rights afforded to policy owners under 1 Sections 10113.71 and 10113.72. Defendant continues to conceal and mislead the 2 policy owners and beneficiaries of the existence of a right to a 30-day lapse notice, a 3 right to a 60-day grace period, a right to an annual designation, as well as the 4 provisions of these Statutes that mandate strict compliance before any effective lapse 5 or termination occurs.

6 99. Moreover, UFLIC has committed deceptive acts under the UCL by 7 affirmatively and erroneously telling Class members that their policies had grace 8 periods of less than 60 days and/or that their policies lapsed or terminated. The truth 9 is that the policies had grace periods of at least 60 days and the policies had not 10 actually lapsed or terminated.

11 100. The unlawful and unfair business practices described above have 12 proximately caused harm and injuries to Plaintiff, the Class, and to the general 13 public in the form of lost money or property. The money lost by the Class includes 14 the policy benefits that UFLIC is withholding, as well as the premiums it wrongfully 15 collected.

16 101. Pursuant to California's UCL, Plaintiff, the general public, and the 17 members of the Class are entitled to revival of their policies Defendant illegally 18 terminated by means of such business practices. Examples of this lost money 19 acquired illegally by Defendants include unrefunded premiums, withheld benefits, 20 and diminution of value of policies.

21 102. Defendant continues to this day to ignore or otherwise violate the 22 Statutes and continues to ignore or repudiate otherwise valid and in-force life 23 insurance policies that should be in effect today. Defendant continues to rob owners 24 and beneficiaries of their lawfully-owned policies and benefits. As such, and 25 pursuant to California's UCL, Plaintiff and the members of the Class and the general 26 public are also entitled to injunctive relief, including public injunctive relief, against 27 Defendant's ongoing business practices.

28 103. If Defendant is not enjoined from engaging in the unlawful business

1 practices described above, Plaintiff, the Class, and the general public will be 2 irreparably injured.

3 104. Plaintiff, the general public, and the members of the Class have no 4 plain, speedy, and adequate remedy at law.

5 105. Defendant, if not enjoined by this Court, will continue to engage in the 6 unlawful business practices described above, in violation of the UCL, in derogation 7 of the rights of Plaintiff, the Class, and the general public.

8 106. Plaintiff's success in this action will result in the enforcement of 9 important rights affecting the public interest by conferring a significant benefit upon 10 the general public.

11 107. Private enforcement of these rights is necessary, as no public agency 12 has pursued enforcement and the interests Plaintiff seeks to protect are for the 13 benefit of the general public. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to an award of attorney's 14 fees and costs of suit pursuant to, among others, California's UCL, the Common 15 Fund Doctrine, the Public Benefit Doctrine, and California Code of Civil Procedure 16 Section 1021.5.

17 XI. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

18 Plaintiff JOSE GRACIANO, Individually, and on Behalf of the Class, prays 19 for relief against Defendant as follows:

- 20 1. For certification of this action as a class action;
- 21 2. For a declaration of Plaintiff's and the Class's rights pursuant to the 22 insurance policies issued by Defendant and a declaration that Defendant 23 has violated the Statutes;
- 24 3. For an injunction to issue against Defendant, stopping and remedying 25 the ongoing violation of the Statutes, including public injunctive relief;
- 26 4. For economic damages according to proof where available;
- 27 5. For interest where available;
- 28 6. For attorney's fees and all litigation costs and expenses where

1 available; and

2 7. For such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
